ENTERTAINMENT GUIDELINES

1. Entertainers/Performers are not paid a fee. We are a volunteer non-profit organization.
2. Respect all other entertainers/performers, the Adel Daylily Festival Committee & most importantly the general public.
3. Keep in mind that there are several church groups at our festival. Have respect for them, the children that attend the festival as well as the elderly.
4. Be careful of your actions, language & attire.
5. Neither the Adel Daylily Festival committee, volunteers, nor city workers will be held responsible for any injury, illness or loss that may arise or come to the entertainers/performers, or his/her goods, while on the festival grounds for the duration of the festival.
6. Be aware that you are responsible for retaining your own personal property insurance.
7. You may sell demos, hats, shirts, autographs, or any other such item or promotion during your set on stage.
8. These such items, mentioned in #7, must promote you or your group. No other items, such as arts & crafts or food items are allowed.
9. You must have your items removed by the end of your set so the next line of entertainment/performer can get set up.
10. If there is a problem, please contact the nearest Festival Committee Member or Volunteer. We will have on our Adel Daylily Festival T-Shirts.

By signing below, I acknowledge having read everything listed in this application and agree and I understand and I agree to be bound by the provisions of this agreement which shall become binding upon acceptance by the Adel Daylily Festival. If I am selected to perform at the Adel Daylily Festival, I agree to abide by all of the rules. If my work does not conform to the regulations, and/or is misrepresented in the application, or if I/we violate any of the Adel Daylily Festival Rules, the Committee retains the right to request my removal of objectionable items or to terminate my/our performance. I understand that if I/we are asked to leave, I/we may not be permitted to perform in the future. Any changes or additions to this agreement shall be in writing.
